Suisse-Taiwan Friendship Group in Swiss Federal Parliament congratulates President Ma's re-election victory

Post Date:2012/1/16

The election for the 13th term president and vice-president of the Republic of China (Taiwan) was held on Jan. 14, 2012. After being informed of the result of the election, President of the Suisse-Taiwan Friendship Group, Mr. Didier Berberat, immediately sent out a congratulatory letter to President Ma who was successfully re-elected by 51.6024% of the vote.

Mr. Berberat recognized the efforts and achievements made by President Ma over the past four years in promoting the amelioration of the relationship between the two sides across the Taiwan Strait as well as the maintenance of regional peace and stability.

On behalf of Suisse-Taiwan Friendship Group, he also admired the mature democratic development of Taiwan. He promised to make efforts to continue the promotion of the development of the relationship between Taiwan and Switzerland in the areas of political, economic and cultural cooperations in the future.
